If the judgment debtor has not paid you or the clerk of the court the amount of the judgment with costs and interest due within 15 days of the date that the judgment form or journal entry of judgment was entered, you should mail a copy of the judgment and this form to the judgment debtor to gather information to assist you in collecting the debt. You must also get a certificate of mailing from the post office (P.S. Form 3817) and file that with the clerk of the court to show that you have made the mailing.
